Matthew Bronson, professor of Archaeology and Biblical Studies, has a passion for uncovering the world of the Bible through ancient ruins. He specializes in Israelite fortresses and what they reveal about the powerful kingdoms behind them. His recent excavations at Tel Lachish and Tel Burna—two major sites in Israel—offer exciting insights into Old Testament history and the stories that continue to shape our understanding of the past.

David Steward, prosecuting attorney turned dynamic speaker, is known for bringing clarity to complex—and often life-changing—Bible prophecies. With a passionate, engaging style, David has spoken to audiences around the world and travelled to over 50 countries, including the biblical lands of Israel, Egypt, Jordan, and Turkey.
